

Code of Conduct for Directors, Executives, and Employees

To align with the Company's business philosophy and ethics, guidelines for directors, executives, and employees have been established to be applied in their work by adhering to principles of morality, honesty, and integrity as follows: